Step back in time!

A delightful pre 1900's miner's cottage which has had some thoughtful restoration work completed in the mid 1980's that has not compromised any of the charm of this well-maintained dwelling. Consisting of 3 bedrooms, a sitting/lounge room - complete with a cosy 'Old World Fireplace' and Baltic Pine ceilings. The bathroom, complete with traditional Claw Foot bath is tastefully decorated. Now for the kitchen which just oozes country kitchen charm complete with its' combination of timber-lined vaulted ceilings, traditional brickwork and slate lined floor, an ever reliable slow combustion stove as well as the modern convenience of gas/electric cooking, and solid timber bench-tops and cupboards, and incorporates an open-plan living and dining area, which is equally very inviting and cosy.
