

22 Bailey Street Porepunkah VIC

Dickens Real Estate along with the custodians of the Porepunkah Union Church are proud to offer this wonderful opportunity to secure a slice of Porepunkah's rich history with the upcoming auction of 22 Bailey Street.

The Union Church was conceived in 1904 and finished in 1908, when its first service was held. Since then it has been a local landmark with regular services, weddings and funerals held through to Christmas of 2015. Now sitting idle and unused, the custodians feel the time is right to sell the property, with all funds raised being donated to our local community.

The property consists of 990m² of flat residential land with the church its centre piece. The photos will give you an indication of what is on offer, but an inspection is required for you to soak up the history, to appreciate the height of

Land Size : 990 sqm
View : <https://www.dickensrealestate.com.au/sale/vic/north-eastern/porepunkah/residential/home/4305374>

Gerard Gray
03 5755 1307