

27 Station Street Porepunkah VIC

4 2 4

Whether it is its timeless design and stylish features that take your fancy or you have wanted a property that sits on a large block of land such as this or you had been waiting patiently for a home where you could sit back, relax and enjoy a rural outlook. Whatever your reason, you will find it very hard to fault this incredibly well presented property at 27 Station Street, Porepunkah.

You are welcomed by a wrap-around verandah that leads you to the front door and into the central hallway that is reminiscent of "farm houses" of years gone by. Firstly you will find the large formal living room and the hall then you onto the open plan everyday living area. Your eyes are immediately drawn to the rear windows with their fabulous rural outlook. The outdoor entertainment area is also an option directly off the dining area.
