4  2  2

At the entrance to Harrietville, at the foothills of the Australian Alps sits this stunning property featuring a home of substantial character and charm, a home that calls for the growing family to enjoy, or a couple who would like space for when the family comes to visit. Plus of course you have a near new two bedroom self-contained cottage, well separated from the home offering guest accommodation that could easily provide a great little income stream.

Set on 5 acres with a nice balance between lawns and gardens, and paddocks for your animals. It is well fenced into three paddocks with abundant water and shade in each.
