2 1

How about owning both sides of Morses Creek Road? Yes that is what is on offer with this 1880s classic that has been in the current family since 1940.

The two bedroom, one bathroom house just reeks of character and history, one of those homes where you just wish the walls could talk. High ceilings, some decorative features, open fireplaces and an outside loo! This home has it all. The home was even a butchers shop during its former life and still has the earthen cellar under the house.

Set on both sides of the road this offering encompasses five titles and some 6.7 acres of part township land and part farming land. Across the road from the house on the western side of Morses Creek Road there is approximately six acres that makes an ideal grazing paddock for your animals or would be a lovely location for a new home
