

427 Morses Creek Road WANDILIGONG VIC

2 1

Are you after an original Wandiligong "miner's cottage"? Then look no further than this beauty that sits on an 880m² block of land and is on offer for an entry level price!

On offer is this two bedroom cottage with verandahs front & rear, open plan living with slow combustion log fire and those high ceilings that cottages such as this are well known for.

While the inside is ready for a freshen up, outside you will find a well maintained home. Recently painted and with an iron roof that was replaced a few years back, its presentation given its age, is very good.

Nice size yard space front and back, open shedding for plenty of storage and it even has its own chook pen ready to go.

Land Size : 880 sqm
