

74 Gavan Street Bright VIC

Bright's most iconic bike shop brand is now available for purchase. After originally opening in Camp Street in the early 1990's, Cyclepath now holds a commanding presence in Gavan Street, being the first commercial space that all visitors entering town along the Great Alpine Road from the West come across.

Cyclepath is the local cycling institution, visited and supported by all the legend cyclists living in or visiting our beautiful region. With incredibly popular bike brands such as Trek and Giant as the mainstays in the business, the shop also has a fantastic fitout with spare parts and accessories and workshop space for repairs and servicing of all types and brands of bikes.

Cyclepath also has a large fleet of impeccably maintained hire bikes that are constantly being hired given the
